

Hi,

This has got to be the most exciting offer of 2009 . . .

It involves multi-millionaire Andrew Reynolds - the 'Godfather' of UK business opportunity.

Now you may have heard me talk about him before in relation to his excellent Cash On Demand course. Anyway, I just found out late last night that he's giving away his luxury Bentley Continental GT Car, completely free!

There's no catch whatsoever and he's not gone crazy. You see, during the first weekend in October Andrew is going to be giving his pride and joy away at his annual Entrepreneur's Bootcamp. This year the event is being held at the massive O2 Arena (yes, the old Millennium Dome)!

Indeed, I've been so moved by why he's doing this and what he's doing that I'm very happy to help him out.

You see, every year at the bootcamp, Andrew gives away all the proceeds from ticket sales to his favourite charity. This year it is the Make A Wish Foundation for sick children.

You can find full details of the event plus how you can enter his competition to win his Bentley plus a whole bunch of other giveaways here

By the way, I'll be going myself on the Friday. I always find the Bootcamp inspiring and this year it looks like it could be the best yet.

If you go along I can guarantee that you will be among the names of those individuals in that room who stand a chance to drive off with his Bentley absolutely free (unfortunately I am excluded as one of those names) and are also guaranteed to leave with a gift worth thousands of pounds.

It's completely genuine and as I said, Andrew has not suddenly gone crazy. If you're the one in the room who gets his Bentley for example, I can confirm that he really will hand you the car keys and log book there and then. It will be yours to do what you want with it. You can even sell it and keep all the cash.

I still can't believe what he's about to do and the stuff he's giving away ... especially for nothing ... but I promise you there's NO CATCH!

Anyway, I'll let Andrew explain himself. Take a quick look at his video message where he'll tell you what he's doing, why he's giving away thousands of pounds of gifts for nothing and show you the Bentley you could own in a few weeks. Just click here right now.

Best wishes

Nick
